“ I have great memories of Don Alberto. He always made it a point to visit my Dad, Ruben Padro, in our home in Puerto Rico whenever he visited from Texas. I remember him always happy with a big smile in his face, and cracking jokes with my Dad. My prayers are with the Renta family. Rest his soul. ”

“ I remember going to the Renta house as a grade school kid when they lived on Rea Street in Lancaster. I always loved going to their house because they had the best toys since Mr. Renta was a toy salesman. Then they moved to Indian Canyon subdivision and that gave me a longer bike ride. He was also a great tennis player. The Renta family always made me feel welcome. Very sorry for your loss! Rickey Chapman
