“ Oh Pa, how sad I am to hear of your passing. I wish I had been able to sit and talk with you like we used to around the kitchen table. After all it was at that kitchen table where you taught me how to drink coffee, read the paper, and argue about politics. You always made me laugh. You were always happy to see me even when I wasn't a part of the family anymore. I will always remember the times I got to spend with you. The trip to Alabama, the dinners at Pancho's, playing gunfight with Muffy, and playing cards over and over again. The memories are endless. I am so incredibly happy and blessed to have known you. I know that you loved the Lord and I can't wait to see you again in heaven. Please tell my family hello as they are all there celebrating your heavenly arrival with you. I love you Pa...until we meet again....Cindy
