

Charles David "Chuck" Corrello

August 5, 1949 - September 2, 2021

Charles David "Chuck" Corrello was born August 5, 1949 in Toledo, Ohio to Clarence and Helen (Coontz) Corrello and passed from this life on September 2, 2021 in Lancaster, TX.

Chuck didn't always have it easy, but even with the physical handicap of being legally blind, he lived a good life, and he loved life! Chuck rode the bus everywhere along with his seeing eye dogs. He had many friends and saw them every place he ventured. Even though Chuck outlived all of his friends, his world fit him well, and he was happy!

He is survived by his brother, Albert C. Panning and his sister, Lisa Panning.

The family will have a visitation hour from 9:15am to 10:15am on Tuesday, September 14, 2021 at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel with a graveside service following at 11:15am in Dallas Ft. Worth National Cemetery.

“ Chuck (Charlie) was a friend of mine from High School (Clay High '67 - Oregon Ohio). He was a fun, well liked, sweet guy. His older brother Scott was killed in Vietnam the year we graduated; it was a hard loss for Charlie as you can imagine, especially being in the military as he was (Army, I believe). He was able to attend a class function some years ago and we were all happy to see how well he continued to get around and live life! I have great memories of him...RIP Charlie!
