“ I will remember Mr. Jack as always tinkering with office things. Mr. Jack would be checking, changing, repairing and doing things that helped employees function in their cubicles and throughout the agency. He had a serious expression on him, but once you got to know Mr. Jack you realized what a kind, gentle and jokester he could be. He will be missed. My prayers and heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Chapman & family.

“ Jack would come by my office each morning and he would always have a joke to tell and we would laugh awhile. He told war stories or a church joke all the time. It was a pleasure to be "Jack Jack" Supervisor for 3 years. I am truly going to miss him.

Mrs. Fae Chapman I am praying for you and the family. In St. John 14:1-3 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. I am just a phone call away! I love you Ms. Fae. - See more at: <http://www.legacy.com/guestbooks/dallasmorningnews/ernest-jack-chapman-condolences/172884045?cid=full#sthash.ImmXHzS8.dpuf>
