“ I worked with Hazel at Sears for many years and after we retired we traveled and had so much fun. I will never forget her. She was friend indeed. Lucille Hopkins

“ Hazel and my mom were friends from the day they moved in next door. Her mother, Mrs. Hale, often baked; the best chocolate cakes with white mountain frosting you ever put in your mouth. Mom and Hazel shared coffee together over the many years they were next door- and for many years after she moved. Hazel, Jane Dunaway and Mom always met for Christmas Eve coffee and sweets. Mostly, I remember them encouraging each other throughout the trials of their lives and celebrating the good. Our family felt like they were a part of our family too. I can still hear Hazel's laugh. Prayers for Ken, Dawn and the rest of the family as Hazel, Mom, Jane and William are reunited in Heaven.

“ Hazel was one of the strongest women I have ever known. Coping with the loss of a husband and raising a mentally challenged child are things most could not survive, but she persevered. She and my mom were best friends...I know they are enjoying a sweet reunion in Heaven right now!
