

Jack Lyndon Trice Jr.

February 4, 1973 - November 1, 2021

Jack Lyndon Trice Jr. was born on February 4, 1973, in Waxahachie, TX, to Jack Trice Sr. and Linda Trice. He passed away on November 1, 2021. He joined his father Jack Trice Sr.; his mother-in-law, Edith Derden; his grandfather, Leroy Trice; his grandmothers, Elsie Trice and Barbara Shaw in Heaven.

He is survived by his soulmate, Jennifer Trice of 29 years; his daughters, Marley Trice and Allison Jackson; his son-in-law, Hunter Jackson; his grandchildren, Wyatt and Daisy Jackson; his mother, Linda Trice; his brother, James and wife Kelly Trice and their children; his nephew, Jake and niece, Elle; his brother, Jared Trice and spouse Miguel; as well as many other aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews whom he loved. Not to mention the dogs who stole his heart, Trixie baby, Riley, and Callie.

Jack Jr. grew up in Lancaster, TX and soon after his graduation, married the love of his life Jennifer and became a daddy. He ended up in East TX raising his girls and being a dedicated husband, making memories they will cherish forever. One thing Jack Jr. loved more than being a dad, was being a pawpaw and he was the best one in the universe. His grandchildren were the air he breathed. He loved his family so fiercely and would work harder than any man to provide and protect them. He worked hard to become a decorated Master Plumber. He was an expert in many things and was incredibly intelligent. He eventually decided he wanted to travel and became an expediter exploring all over the US as he delivered and picked up loads. He and his wife had many fun adventures sightseeing along the way. Jack Jr. had many talents and enjoyed hunting and fishing since he grew up doing those things with his papaw, dad, and brothers. He loved grilling steaks for his girls and he loved eating his mama's cooking! He appreciated his mom for always going above and beyond with the family gatherings. But the thing Jack Jr. loved the most was just being with his family. He was a one-of-a-kind man. He was a good man and he knew the Lord Jesus as his Savior. We will one day be reunited with Jack Jr. and I'm sure he will give us all a good laugh. He was always the life of the party.

Family will receive friends from 6:00pm to 8:00pm on Friday, November 5, 2021 at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel. A celebration of Jack's life will be at 10:00am on Saturday, November 6, 2021 also in Byrum Chapel.
