

Mildred Ann Aday

March 25, 1953 - November 21, 2019

Mildred Ann Aday was born March 25, 1953 in Avalon, TX to Billy Rufus Green and Agnes Mae (Henderson) Hall and passed from this life November 21, 2019 in Waxahachie, TX.

Mildred loved beyond measure. She worked as a registered nurse since 1991. Her passion was taking care of veterans at the VA Medical Center. She loved them as well as everyone else she met. Mildred never met a stranger. She talked to everyone. If they were not talkers, she had them talking and sharing their stories anyway. Mildred loved her family beyond anything else.

She is survived by her husband, Chris Aday; her daughter, Suzzette Seeton and husband Mike; her son, Lonnie "Bubba" Vaughn; her grandchildren, Wesly Seeton, Jason Seeton, Cody Vaughn, Hunter Vaughn, and Suzzie Vaughn; her 5 great-grandchildren; her brother, Eddie Green; her sister, Loretta Billings; and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

Family will receive friends from 6:00pm to 8:00pm, Sunday, November 24, 2019 at Byrum Funeral Home. A celebration of Mildred's life will be at 10:00am, Monday, November 25, 2019 at Byrum Funeral Home Chapel with interment to follow at Edgewood Cemetery, Lancaster.

“ *Mildred was the baby & I will always miss her .
She took care of every & everyone all her life.
She best I remember had graduated the 8th grade & then got married. She became grown after that ! Because she truely was.
I love & miss my little sister Mildred Ann*
