“ We met Sandy when we moved in next door in Streetman. She always had a smile on her face, and a quick laugh. We enjoyed going to church together, and out to eat. We will miss her friendship dearly. May the Lord comfort Butch and the family.

“ Sandy was one of the first friends Gene and I had when we moved to Log Cabin. She was so instrumental in working to better the city. She worked tirelessly on remodeling our Red Barn, working the many fish tournaments, and any fund raisers we had. She always had a smile and laugh. She was truly a great friend to Gene and myself. Will miss her. Judy Bearden
